

'STATIPS'
FOR THE MONTH OF OCTOBER 2009
Statistics Day Competition

October 1

Did you know? The trade data collected for import duty purposes and a few other statistics that was extracted from administrative sources were published as part of the statistical programmes of St. Kitts, Nevis and Anguilla.

There are 14 more days left before Anguilla - Caribbean Statistics Day.

For more statistics visit the Government of Anguilla website <http://www.gov.ai/statistics/> or call us on 497-5731.

October 2

Did you know? Anguilla was only a part of the statistical programmes of St. Kitts, Nevis and Anguilla during the period of 1958 to 1967.

There are 13 more days left before Anguilla - Caribbean Statistics Day.

For more statistics visit the Government of Anguilla website <http://www.gov.ai/statistics/> or call us on 497-5731.

October 3

Did you know? Starting in the early seventies, the Statistics Unit of the Government of Anguilla produced statistics about Anguilla's society and conducted censuses in 1974, 1984 and 1992.

There 12 more days left before Anguilla - Caribbean Statistics Day

For more statistics visit the Government of Anguilla website <http://www.gov.ai/statistics/> or call us on 497-5731.

October 4

Did you know? The Statistics Act of Anguilla was passed in 1971 and revised in 2000.

There are 11 more days left before Anguilla - Caribbean Statistics Day.

For more statistics visit the Government of Anguilla website <http://www.gov.ai/statistics/> or call us on 497-5731.

October 5

Did you know? The first Statistical Abstract was published in 1984 and covered the period 1960 – 1982.

There are 10 more days left before Anguilla - Caribbean Statistics Day.

For more statistics visit the Government of Anguilla website <http://www.gov.ai/statistics/> or call us on 497-5731.

October 6

Did you know? The first statistical surveys were conducted in 1985 when the Consumer Price Index was first published and a survey of business establishments was carried out to produce the National Accounts.
There are 9 days left before Anguilla - Caribbean Statistics Day.

For more statistics visit the Government of Anguilla website <http://www.gov.ai/statistics/> or call us on 497-5731.

October 7

Did you know? In 1998, the first household sample survey was conducted with the assistance of an external consultant hired by the Eastern Caribbean Central Bank but paid for by the Anguillan Government.
There are 8 days left before Anguilla - Caribbean Statistics Day.

For more statistics visit the Government of Anguilla website <http://www.gov.ai/statistics/> or call us on 497-5731.

October 8

Did you know? In 2006, the Anguilla Statistics Department celebrated its first statistics week.
There are 7 more days left before Anguilla - Caribbean Statistics Day.

For more statistics visit the Government of Anguilla website <http://www.gov.ai/statistics/> or call us on 497-5731.

October 9

Did you know? Anguilla carried out a census of households and population in May 2001.
There are 6 more days left before Anguilla - Caribbean Statistics Day.

For more statistics visit the Government of Anguilla website <http://www.gov.ai/statistics/> or call us on 497-5731.

October 10

Did you know? The Statistics Department purchased a scanner and software to facilitate Optical Character Recognition for the data capture of the 2001 census questionnaires.
There 5 more days left before Anguilla - Caribbean Statistics Day.

For more statistics visit the Government of Anguilla website <http://www.gov.ai/statistics/> or call us on 497-5731.

October 11

Did you know? The UK Department for International Development (DFID) provided funding for technical assistance, training and computers over a 4 year period commencing in November 2000.

There are 4 more days left before Anguilla - Caribbean Statistics Day.

For more statistics visit the Government of Anguilla website <http://www.gov.ai/statistics/> or call us on 497-5731.

October 12

Did you know? During the four year period from November 2000, the Statistics Unit was upgraded to that of a Department with its separate budget and head of Department - Chief Statistician and was no longer housed as a Unit in the Ministry of Finance.

There are 3 more days left before Anguilla - Caribbean Statistics Day.

For more statistics visit the Government of Anguilla website <http://www.gov.ai/statistics/> or call us on 497-5731.

October 13

Did you know? In January 2002, the Statistics Department stopped producing paper publications and published all statistics on the Government of Anguilla website - <http://www.gov.ai/statistics>

There are 2 more days left before Anguilla - Caribbean Statistics Day.

For more statistics visit the Government of Anguilla website <http://www.gov.ai/statistics/> or call us on 497-5731.

October 14

Did you know? In January 2002, a business register was created by the Statistics Department and to assist in the area of economic statistics, generally with the intention of improving the coverage of the Annual Business Survey (AXAABS).

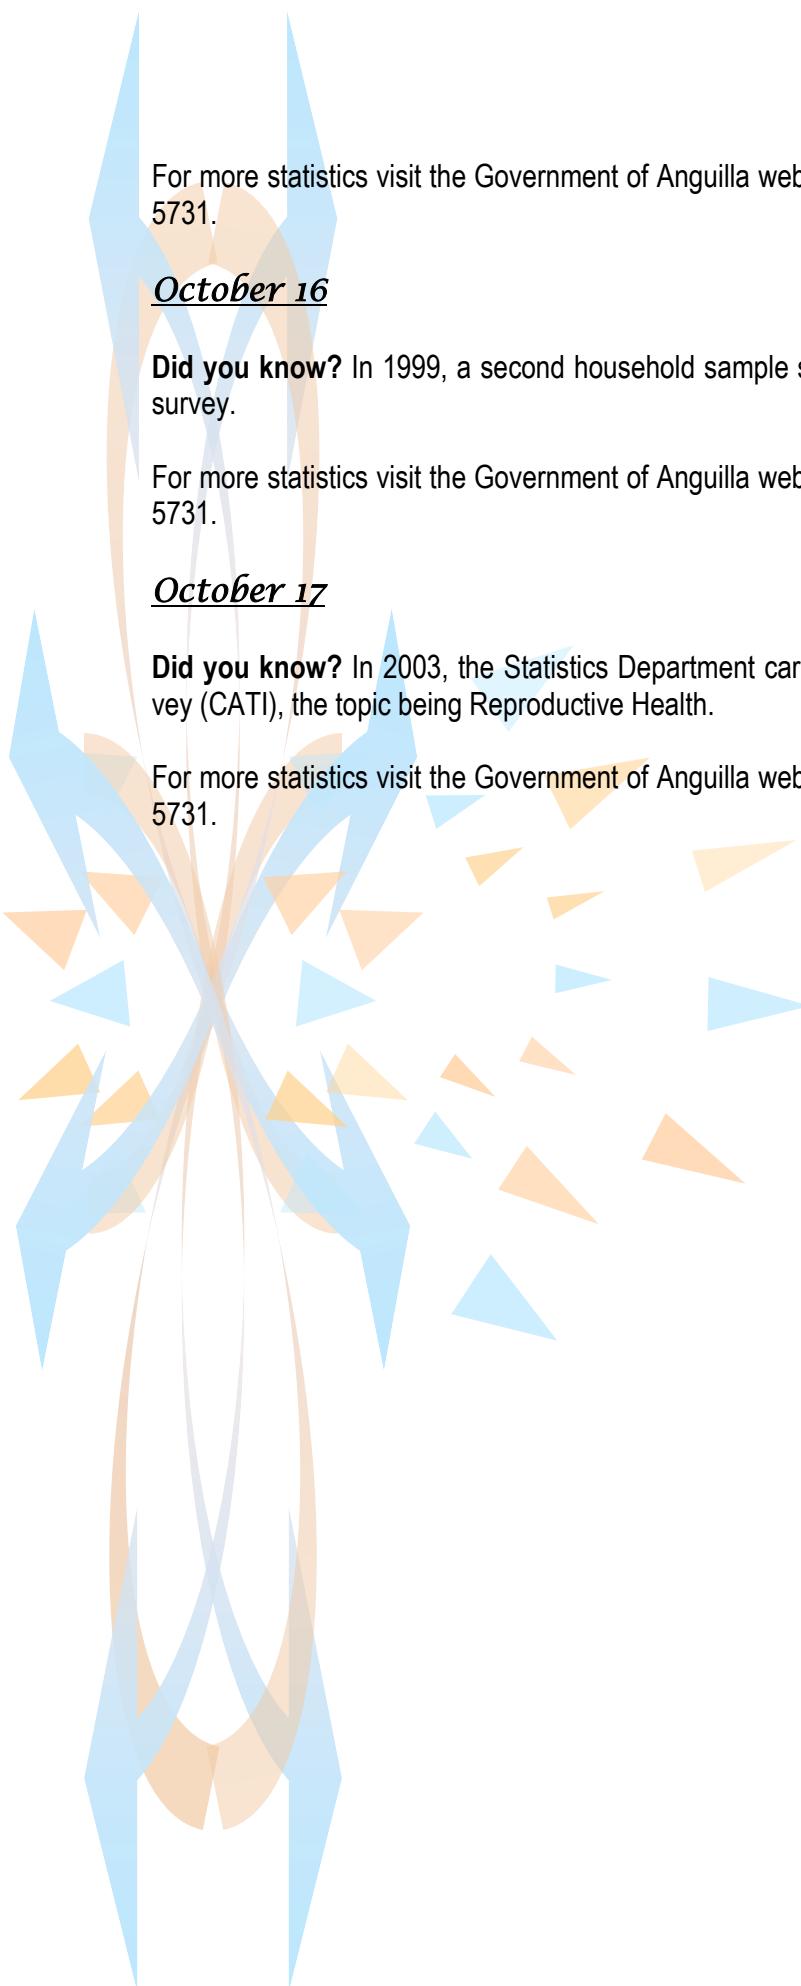

There is 1 more day left before Anguilla - Caribbean Statistics Day.

For more statistics visit the Government of Anguilla website <http://www.gov.ai/statistics/> or call us on 497-5731.

October 15

Did you know? Did you know? Anguilla's next population and housing census is scheduled for May 2011 in order to collect data about the size, composition and structure of the population and attributes about households and housing in Anguilla. This data will be used for various purposes including updating current baseline data.

Today is Anguilla - Caribbean Statistics Day!

For more statistics visit the Government of Anguilla website <http://www.gov.ai/statistics/> or call us on 497-5731.

October 16

Did you know? In 1999, a second household sample survey was conducted which was a Labour Force survey.

For more statistics visit the Government of Anguilla website <http://www.gov.ai/statistics/> or call us on 497-5731.

October 17

Did you know? In 2003, the Statistics Department carried out its first Computer Assisted Interview Survey (CATI), the topic being Reproductive Health.

For more statistics visit the Government of Anguilla website <http://www.gov.ai/statistics/> or call us on 497-5731.