

Guyana

In spite of the current census activities currently being undertaken in Guyana, Caribbean Statistics Day will be commemorated on Monday 15th October 2012. Activities planned for the celebration include:

- A presentation on the current Census
- A Press briefing in the latter part of the day to further promote the Statistics Programme and Census.

'Ad hoc' activities will continue during the week as staff become available from the census activities.